

SOCIAL SKILLS

Goals/Purpose:

- To help children improve their social interactions at home, with friends and family, and at school/ in the community.

Program Outline:

- The 8-week program will focus on improving the child social skill and teach them new skills and ways of interacting with others.
- Topics covered include:
Emotional Regulation, Mixed Emotion, Distress Tolerance, Problem Solving, Peer Interactions, Actions and Reactions in Different Social Situation, Friendship Skills, Bullying, and Feeling Part of a Group.

Program Features:

- Small Group Sizes (Maximum of 8)
- Individualized goals for each child
- Written Evaluation of Progress at the end of the Program
- Parent Time—Opportunity for Parents to mingle over tea/coffee while their child is in group and to learn more about integrating skills learned in group into the child's everyday life

WHAT:

An 8-week group-based program for children who struggle with meaningful social interactions.

WHY:

To help children improve social interactions with others.

WHEN:

Saturdays from January 12th to March 2nd

COST:

$720 (including a deposit of $150).

* Cost may be covered by extended health benefits plans – check with your health care provider.

CONTACT :

403-245-5981
support@ rmpsychservices.com

WHERE:

Rocky Mountain
Psychological Services

Rocky Mountain
Psychological
Services